CALL FOR PAPERS

INTERFERENCES

“Interferences” is a generous title under which works belonging to different areas of research can be gathered based on common points, conjunctions and interferences that enable us to obtain the most interesting results, creating new ways of dialogue between cultures, languages, arts, literatures or between cultures and arts, cultures and languages, cultures and social facts, etc. Therefore, linguists, sociologists of culture, literary critics, information and communication specialists from different areas of research that have inspired and influenced each other over the centuries, are called to try to identify the interferences of their fields of expertise with other domains, to explain why these phenomena occur and to analyze the emerging results.

NOTE: Article proposals should include the title and an abstract of about 250 words followed by keywords. For specifications regarding the editing of your article, please refer to our website: jpic.mta.ro.

We invite our collaborators to submit original articles that have not been published elsewhere. It is the responsibility of authors to ensure the originality, authorship, accuracy, complete references, coherent organization and legible appearance of their works.
